

Advisory

November 7, 2017

HUNDREDS OF STUDENTS, LOW-INCOME RESIDENTS COULD FACE EVICTION UNDER NEW CITY AIRBNB RULES

Please be advised that the Fairbnb.ca Coalition - which lobbies for fair rules for Airbnb and other short-term rentals - will be hosting a press conference tomorrow (Wednesday, November 8, 2017) at:

Location: City Hall, outside Committee Room 1

Date: Wednesday, November 8, 2017

Time: 1:00 PM

Duration: approximately 20 mins for release + questions

A report titled "Could Airbnb Turn Toronto's Most Affordable Rental Housing Stock Into Ghost Hotel Suites?" to be released at the event will highlight the important role of secondary suites in Toronto's housing market, the risk they pose to Toronto neighborhoods, and the likelihood of evictions and housing losses due to potential loopholes and exemptions in Toronto's upcoming Short-Term Rental By-Law.

For more information, please contact:

Thorben Wieditz at 647-409-8997, at Fairbnb@fairbnb.ca, or @fairbnbcanada on Twitter